INTRODUCTION

1.1 Background of study

In English, there are four interrelated language skills, namely listening, speaking, reading, and writing.

Among these skills, writing is one of the most crucial skills in the high school curriculum because it trains students to think critically and creatively, which is then expressed in the form of systematic writing.

According to Wardianto Bayu, (2023) , students are asked not only to produce writing, but also to prioritize every process in writing.
