ABSTRACT

This paper was created with the aim of making it easier for teachers to teach English, especially speaking to students during the current COVID-19 pandemic. Because of the COVID-19 pandemic, the government requires all school to conduct an online teaching and learning activity. One of the most common applications for online learning is Zooming. The author chose to use the Zoom application for teaching speaking to junior high school students, because the Zoom application is an application that is accessible and commonly used as an application for online teaching and learning activity.
